Poetry.

Hymn of Faith.

Tossing at night upon a stormy sea,
What earthly help can now avail for thee?
How the frail boat, on which thy hopes are cast,
Shivers and trembles in the rising blast!

Lift up thine eyes! Behold! upon the wave,
The Lord draws near thy trembling life to save.
He knows thy peril, though thy lips are dumb;
Across the watery waste he bids thee come.

Cling to no frail supports that round thee float;
Arise, and quickly leave thy sinking boat;
Strong in his strength, and in his courage brave,
Stand thou upright upon the slippery wave.

Think not how the angry water rise:
Think not that men will gaze with wondering eyes:
Think not it is thine own exalted power
Upholds thy feet upon that treacherous floor.

But fix thine eyes upon that face divine;
Take the kind hand so gladly stretched for thine;
Let not thy clear faith waver nor grow dim:
So on the water shalt thou walk to him.

Selected Story.

Gripper's Mistake.

A CAPITAL STORY WITH AN EXCELLENT MORAL.

One of the first settlers in the Wild River region was David Somerby. He was a quiet, well-meaning man, content to live upon the results of honest toil, and anxious to render unto every man his due. He bought his land when it was cheap—in fact, when the price had been merely nominal; and with what hunting and fishing, and cultivating such land as he was inclined to clear, he managed to live very comfortable.

Another of the early settlers was Jasper Gripper. But Gripper was a different sort of a man from Somerby. He was close and tricky, and could bear down very hard upon his neighbors in pursuing his own interests. He boasted to his friends that no man should overreach him.

Aye, Jasper Gripper, but thou may overreach thyself. We shall see.

Time passed on, and it became known to the lumbermen of the Massaquoit that the best pine in the country came from the Wild River region. One day in early spring a gentlemen came up from a distant city and looked up and down the river on Jasper Gripper's land; and on the following day he was joined by two other gentleman. Gripper had often thought what a splendid place that would be for a dam and mill. With a firm dam the power would be enormous. There was only one trouble: the extreme freshets to which the river was subject in the spring and autumn would render it difficult to fix the dam. But then there were engineers who could overcome all such difficulties.

Finally the gentleman who had first visited the fall introduced himself to Mr. Gripper as Mr. James Bates, and frankly stated that he had been commissioned to examine the fall, and, if he thought proper, to purchase it. Jasper Gripper was keenly and sharply alive. His eye teeth were cut. He knew that for several years the attention of lumbermen had been directed to the Wild River pines, and that, lately, people had discovered that the land was of the very best quality. And, moreover, he knew that the fall upon his land was the only site upon the river, anywhere in that region, where the dam could be safely erected. There was another fall six miles below, upon David Somerby's estate; but it was of a wild, roaring, turbulent character, locked in the jaws of towering granite, where no mills could be possibly built.

"Of course," said Mr. Bates, "we cannot think of paying much for the water privilege, and but very little for the land which would be required for our buildings. The expenses of erecting a suitable dam will be very great, and at best we run great risk. You will be the gainer in every way. Not only will it open a ready market for your lumber, but the value of all your surrounding land will be greatly enhanced."

Mr. Gripper winked and then nodded. He had his own interests to look after. If he did not look after them he was sure nobody else would. After a deal of thinking he said he would sell the water privilege, together with ten acres of land adjacent, for two thousand dollars.

The agent was astonished. He considered the price ridiculous.

"Why," said he, "you did not pay so much for your whole territory."

It made no odds what he (Gripper) had paid. His price had been named, and the company could take it or let it be.

Mr. Bates was not authorized to accept such terms. He must confer with his principals. And he went away.

In a few days he came again, this time in company with three others. They went up and examined the water privilege, and then came back to Mr. Gripper's house, where they informed that individual that if he would throw in ten more acres of land, they would accept the offer.

Gripper thought he had them. He had thoroughly digested the matter, and had come to the conclusion that the water power would be of inestimable value to a company able to improve it, and that they were bound to have it.

"Gentlemen," said he, "my offer of two thousand dollars was made for your acceptance several days ago. I did not leave it open to your pleasure. I have since been examining the property more thoroughly, and have concluded not to sell for less than three thousand."

"Why, bless your soul, man!" cried one of the company, "do you realize how our mills, erected upon the site, would benefit you? The value of all the rest of your property would be doubled—aye, quadrupled—the moment our wheels were set in motion. We had supposed you would freely give the water power to a responsible company who would improve it."

Mr. Gripper laughed scornfully. He knew his own interests better than that. They could take up with his offer, or they could leave it, as they pleased.

After much discussion, Mr. Bates spoke thus:

"Mr. Gripper, we would like your final offer to remain open to our acceptance three days, at the end of which time you shall have our answer. Will you accommodate us?"

"When I said three thousand dollars," replied Mr. Gripper, "I meant to include only ten acres of land. If you want ten acres more, I must call it thirty-five hundred."

And with this monstrous proposition, which was to be open for three days, the parties separated.

One of the gentlemen of Mr. Bates' party was Benton McIntosh, the most accomplished civil engineer of the day.

"You spoke of another fall below here," he said, after they had left Gripper's residence.

"Yes," answered Bates, "but you will find it utterly impracticable."

Still McIntosh desired to look at it, and thither the party bent their steps.

The fall was found to be a tumbling, dashing flood pouring down a declivity of at least seventy feet in a distance of twenty rods, leading and surging over jagged shelves or rocks into a boiling chasm below, while on both hands arose perpendicular walls of solid granite, showing that at some period far remote the mountain torrent had literally cut its way through the adamantine ledge.

McIntosh examined the lay of the land below the fall, and at a point not far distant in that direction he found a shallow swell, or gully, overgrown with grass and shrubbery, but with a deposit of river sand upon its bottom. The appearance of the place attracted his attention.

"Probably," said Mr. Bates, "it is when the melted snow and heavy rains find their course from the hills."

"I think not," said McIntosh. "This sand is from the river—not from the hills—and you will observe that it could not have been backed up by any rise of the water below. Let us follow it."

And they struck into the evident waterpart, and followed it up around the ledge, by an easy and gradual ascent, until it led them out upon the river's bank, nearly a quarter of a mile from the fall.

"Eureka!" cried McIntosh, clapping his hand exultingly, "Here we have a watercourse, marked out and graded by Nature herself, which will yield a power immeasurably superior to the one above. And moreover all danger from floods is debarred."

The others quickly comprehended the value of his discovery. They saw that by cutting a canal along the old watercourse—a course over which the river had poured a stream at its highest floods—they would be able to control the watent will, and to use it over and over again for the consumption by mills, set one below the other along the gracefully curved track. And two things more: The sites here were more favorable for building than were those above, with better timber land surrounding; and the furpus cataract would not be between their mills and the market.

The next question was, who owned the newly-discovered privilege? It belonged to David Somerby. They visited him, and carefully opened their business.

"Look here, gentlemen," he said, after they had beaten the bush awhile—their experience with Gripper had made them cautious—"let us understand each other. Tell me plainly what you want, and I will tell you as plainly what I will do on my part."

Mr. Bates made up his mind that he had an honest, straightforward man to deal with, and he stated his case plainly and frankly. He not only told how the company would develop the water power, and erect their mills, but he went on to point out the advantages which would result to the owner of the adjoining land, both in chancing the value of the land in itself, and also of the magnificent pine and spruce timber with which it was covered.

Mr. Somerby listened attentively, and at length told them to call upon him on the following morning. He wanted to sleep upon it.

That evening Jasper Gripper called down to see his friend Somerby. He wanted to purchase five hundred acres, more or less, of the pine intervale and spruce upland adjoining his land. Gripper fought shy, and hung on, and Somerby only got rid of him by assuring him that he was at present not at liberty to sell.

"Aha!" chuckled Gripper. "Them millfolks have been here. They want the land. Well, well, let 'em buy it. I shall own all the land between it and their mills, and they'll find it hard work to get their logs up without my consent."

And Gripper returned to his home, firmly persuaded that the company had resolved to purchase his water privilege. O! why had he not asked them five thousand for it?

On the following morning, Mr. Bates and his friends were punctual, and when Mr. Somerby had been asked what conclusion he had arrived at, he spoke as follows:

"Gentlemen, I have thought the matter all over, and have made up my mind. I have two propositions to make, and you can accept which you choose. All told, I own about fifteen hundred acres of land in this section, and the river cuts it nearly in halves. Full half of it is rich intervale, covered with pine, and the rest is upland and hill, with spruce, hemlock, and oak. First—I will give you the land for your course, and deed to you the power, and also give all the land necessary for your mill building, provided that you, on your part, will set at once about developing and improving the power and putting up the mills; or, I will turn all my land into the stock of the company, at a fair appraisal, and become one of you."

Mr. Bates was authorized to accept the first offer on the spot, and to give bonds, if necessary, for the performance of the company's part of the contract. But he liked the second offer best, though before accepting it he must confer at headquarters.

Mr. Somerby informed him that the offer was open to him for as long as he desired.

On their way back, Mr. Bates and his companions called upon Jasper Gripper.

"Gentlemen," said Mr. Gripper, as soon as mutual salutations had been exchanged, "you will understand that when I offered the twenty acres of land I did not intend, for the price named, to include the timber standing thereon."

"It makes no difference," returned Mr. Bates, with a smile. "We have concluded not to purchase your water privilege."

"How?—not purchase?" gasped Gripper.

"No. We do not want it." Mr. Bates didn't think it necessary to tell him of the better power which they had discovered.

"But—gentlemen!—There must be some mistake."

They assured him there was no mistake at all.

Mr. Gripper was in agony. He would take two thousand dollars. He would take fifteen hundred. He would take whatever they were willing to pay. He would give them the water and the land, if they would put up their mills thereon.

But they would not do it. He had pushed them just one step too far. In seeking to overreach them he had overreached himself. And they left him a prey to remorse and bitterness of spirit.

The company before whom McIntosh laid their report, appointed a commission, with full power to decide and negotiate; and upon visiting David Somerby's section, and carefully surveying his territory, they concluded to accept his second proposition. So he surrendered his land into the stock of the company, and became one of them; and we may here remark that six months later he was not a little surprised upon being appointed superintendent of the lumbering gangs, with a salary such as his wildest dreams of wealth had never grasped.

The water power was developed under the engineering of Benton McIntosh, and it proved even greater than he had anticipated. The mills were erected—first mills for sawing lumber; and then mills for grinding grain; and in time other mills for making cloth, and for fabricating various other articles necessary to the comfort of man.

The land of Jasper Gripper was of course raised in value; but it availed him not. The sight of David Somerby, wealthy and respected and honored with offices of profit and trust, while he was shunned and shut out from the public confidence, filled him with wrathful suffering. Verily he had overreached himself in his narrowness and selfishness of spirit.

To-day a flourishing town is upon the site of David Somerby's section, and the hum of thousands of busy spindles makes cheerful music for the prosperous and happy operatives; and from its tireless looms and clanging forges flow out wealth to the nation.

Plantation Talk of the Right Ring.

The great need of Louisiana and of the South is a widespread, varied industry. To the accomplishment of this grand object should all our energies be directed. It is practicable—within the limits of the attainable. But how shall it be secured? That is the absorbing question to which we should address ourselves, and with a perseverance and pluck that will not brook defeat. With this spirit and this determination success is certain. Nobody thus acting, and with reasonable means, ever failed to achieve anything that is rational and beneficial. Let us start with the clear understanding that we intend and are going to triumph. This will nerve us for the conflict and carry us through it. Let not our readers suppose that we lay too much stress upon this enthusiastic confidence in final victory.

Whoever won a prize in a hard struggle with a half-hearted purpose? An unwavering conviction of the certainty of conquest lends mighty strength in battle, and is a potent element in accomplishing the end in view. We have the strongest possible reasons for the confidence we speak of, as we demonstrated last week. We have all the natural elements, and in the greatest profusion, for the varied industry which is the great desideratum with the South, and everything else, therefore, depends upon ourselves. Hitherto, we have known splendidly how not to do it, and we have succeeded in not doing it!

The question now is, how to do it. In the first place, we answer let us not be afraid to do it. We read a story some years before the war which illustrates what we mean, and will bear repeating. An ambitious young gentleman, in South Carolina, we believe, of more than average brains, and of a studious turn of mind, hit, one day, upon a new idea about something, and the more he thought of it the more confident he became that it would be valuable to himself and to society, if practically carried out. But he was poor, and did not know how to go to work to achieve his object. His father was dead, and the only person he thought could help him in the emergency was a rich old friend of his father, whom he had never seen, and to whom he resolved to apply. Fortifying himself with letters, he in due time reached the aristocratic mansion of his father's friend, and laid his plans before him. The old gentleman received him with the courtesy for which he was distinguished, and listened to his recital with a patience and attention that made his heart beat with high hopes of success. Having finished, the rich man began thus; "Then you are really the son of my old friend——?"

"I am, Sir," responded the young man.

"And this scheme is really one of your own devising?"

"It is, Sir."

"The idea originated with you?"

"It did, Sir," proudly responded the ambitious youth, his eyes fairly sparkling with joy.

"And you have come to me to aid you in carrying it out?"

"I have, Sir."

"Well, Sir," continued the proud man, "if all this is so, how dare you disgrace your father, your father's friends, your State, and your section by turning Yankee, and making an invention!"

The young man shrank away trembling in every limb, and feeling as if he had almost been guilty of some disreputable act. It is needless to say that his invention was never again heard of. The times have happily changed in this respect; but let us not be afraid of turning Yankees by making inevntions. Let us not be afraid of any new notions. These new notions are abridging time and space, saving labor, multiplying resources and blessings, clothing the desert in verdure, electrifying humanity, and making all the earth akin. We have been too suspicious of them, and we have been left far in the rear in consequence. One of the methods of doing it is to go to thinking. Thought—it lies at the foundation of everything else. It is the duty of our Southern farmers and planters, traders and mechanics and laborers, to go to thinking and to keep thinking. Thinking and acting, acting and thinking! These will accomplish marvelous results. We must pause until next week.—Home Journal of Louisiana.

The Charlotte Observer learns through a private source that Sheriff Hurly, of Cabarrus county, committed suicide on Friday night week, by shooting himself with a gun. No particulars are given of the sad affair.

A man in Wilmington, N. C., has procured a license to marry his fifth wife. wife. He is seventy-nine years old, and the bride twenty-three.

Land and Building Associations.

These associations are attracting especial attention at the present time all over the country, as well from the capitalists who seeek them as a source of safe remunerative investment, as from the mechanic laborer who sees the opportunity thus held out to him to secure to himself and family a permanent home, by the payment of small monthly installments, which amount to no more than the rent he would other wise pay for a house in which he had no interest.

If our citizens would examine the merits of these institutionswe think they could not fail to become covinced of the great benefits to be derived therefrom to a community like ours.

We take the following from the St. Paul Real Estate Register, it being a clear and concise statement of the workings of these associations which we thiuk will be of interest to those of our readers who have invested in them and hope it will induce others of our citizens to take hold of this matter who are interested in the improvement of our city:

These associations are about fifty years old in Europe and twenty in this country. In Germany they are called "Societies of Mutual credit," and at one time 1,300 of them consolidated and formed an immense People's Institution. They are of and for "the people" there as here, and designed to elevate and accommodate the working classes and men who live by salaries or monthly pay. Their principal features are that the capital is made up and stock paid by monthly installments; that every member is a partner according to his stock; the association is a mutual one; the loans made monthly, run from six to eight years, and are paid (not in one sum) but by the monthly payments and the dividends.

Any person may take $200 of stock and be a member of a Building Association who can pay $1 per month. He pays up his $200 dollars in stock in this way. He may take a larger amount by increasing his monthly payment at the same rate—$2 per month, giving $400 stock; $3, $600 stock; $5, $1,000; $10, $2,000, &c.

The member is entitled to a loan equal to his stock, which he may use for any purpose whatever, but must secure it by real estate worth enough over the actual cash he borrows to make it his interest to pay his monthly dues and interest.

The loans are put up at auction every month in sums of $200. The member bidding the highest bonds or premium for the $200, takes the loan. His premium is taken out of it. He gets the $200—less the premium. This premium ranges from $60 to $100. If he bids $100 premium, he only gets $100 actual cash out of the $200 loan. He gives his obligation for the whole $200. That is, he gives a bond conditioned to pay his $1 per month on his stock, and $1 per month additional as interest on his loan, until his monthly payment of $1 and his dividends are equal to $200—the amount of the loan. When this happens which is generally in six or eight years, longer time it takes the stock to ripen to par value. He then realizes $120 after paying his $89 bonus. He pays the same $2 per month or $24 per year, or in 8 years $192. This $144 in 6 years, and $192 in 8 years, observe, is principal and interest for the actual cash loan of $100 and $120. For the $100 he has paid $144. $100 was the principal he received. The $44 must therefore be the interest. $44 in 6 years on a loan of $100, is $8,32 per year, or 7⅓ per cent. per annum. For the $120 he has paid $192—$120 for principel and $75 for interest. $75 in 8 years on a loan of $120 is $9 per year. $9 per year on $20, is 7½ per cent.

This gives you the actual working of the system and the intelligent reader can draw his own deductions as to its advantages, and how they will be qualified by higher or lower bonuses. If the average bonuses are $100 and he gets his loan for $80. it is still more favorable. If the average bonuses are $80 and he pays $100, it is much less favorable.

The advantages of these associations are, First: as banks of accommodation, where money can always be had, to make his "obligation for $200 shall be null and void," his loan is cancelled by his stock and his mortgage is released. The $1 per month interest is 6 per cent. on the $200 loan at its face.

If the borrower only realizes $100 out of the loan and pays $1 per month interest, it is apparently 12 per cent per annum. Now follow him through the whole transaction and see how much his entire payments amount to. Supposing the loan to be made on the first

OUR ADVANTAGES OVER THE WEST.

In addition to a more favorable climate and naturally as good a soil, Eastern North Carolina has another important advantage over the West, and that is in its easy and cheap transportation to Market. That the soil is rich and productive in the West is admitted, but the cost of sending the surplus of Wheat and Corn to market is a draw-back. Every mile you go farther West a handful of Wheat or Corn must be taken out of every bushel as toll to the Railroads. As the matter now stands a bushel of Wheat that must be rolled from the Missouri River to the great Northern Markets nearly eats itself up in car fare. Take the States West of Illinois. The grain sold must be carried across the States, thrown into an elevator at Chicago, emptied from that into a car or hold of a lake vessel, rolled or floated to Buffalo, or Ogdensburg, ground at some of the mills along the route or forwarded in bulk to New York. All along this route it is subject to fares, and commissions, and charges, and insurances. These of course come out of the farmer. The margin left him leaves him scarcely anything for profit.

Here our transportation is by water. It is so much cheaper that it makes it quite an object to the farmer. Instead of costing him from thirty to fifty cents a bushel to ship to New York he can send it for from ten to fifteen. This is an item worthy of consideration. Then the genial climate and the mild winters are matters of very considerable importance to both farmer and laborer. It lessens the cost of living, of keeping stock and saves more than half the labor elsewhere required to prepare winter feed for stock and winter fuel for the house. Nor is this all. The soil is naturally as productive as in any section of the Union. Of course it has been neglected and some of it over worked, but we never saw land so easily recuperated—so quickly improved by manure, lime and clover. And then the land is so cheap—can be bought at such low figures as to make it an additional inducement for immigration here instead of to the West. We repeat our advice to all about to leave the North for homes elsewhere; Come and see this section for yourselves.

COREA.

Until the recent difficulties few of our citizens had known anything about Corea; indeed, probably many had never heard of such a region. Corea is a peninsula lying on the eastern coast of Asia, between the Yellow Sea and the Japan Sea. It is 400 miles long and 150 broad, and has an area of 90,000 square miles. The coast is rugged, barren, and very difficult of access, which fact accounts for the little value attached to the commerce of the country. The northern portion of the country is cold and mountainous, but the western part possesses a warm climate and fertile soil, producing wheat, rice, fruits, cotton, millet, tobacco, and hemp. The mines of gold, silver, iron, copper, coal, and rock salt are little worked, the people being principally engaged in agriculture and stock-raising. Descriptions of the arms used in the struggle with our troops show that, like the Chinese, they possess some skill in the manufacture of weapons. In their jealousy of foreigners they resemble the Chinese, to whom they are closely related. Buddhism is the popular religion of the country, although some of the people are followers of the Chinese philosopher Confucius.

The government is despotic, and, although nominally tributary to China, is really independent. The sovereign wields both temporal and spiritual power, being high priest of the Buddhist religion as well as king. That the government is unpopular is plainly shown by the friendliness of the people to the sailors of Admiral Rodgers' fleet and their evident desire to aid them, hindered by fear of the authorities. Victory to our arms is almost certain to be the result of such a struggle as the one now in progress on the Asiatic coast, but even this fact cannot make war desirable. On an inhospitable coast, far away from the conveniences of civilized life, mortality among the troops will be great, and the cost of victory will be entirely disproportioned to its profits. It is to be hoped that prompt and bold measures on the part of our Government will intimidate the Coreans, and make them willing to treat with the embassy instead of cotinuing the war.

The result of recent elections in California, Wyoming and Wilmington are discouraging, but can all be accounted for on the ground of unsuitable nominations.—Delawarian (Dem.)

This is not very complimentory to the defeated Democratic Candidates. It will apply with equal force to thousands of Democratic nominations made in all parts of the country.

The Republicans have carried Colorado by an increased majority.

NORFOLK AND THE NORTH CAROLINA TRADE.

The Norfolk Journal of the 7th inst., has a very sensible article under the above caption, and we hope the Norfolk merchants gave it a careful perusal.

It says truthful that "our North Carolina trade is large: but it could be and would be much larger if the men of Norfolk would seek more dilligently for it. A good many of these Norfolk merchants erroneously imagine that the business men in Eastern Carolina will become entirely unmindful of such places as New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore, and dilligently seek them out without any exertion on their part.

In this they are very much mistaken. If they would secure our trade, they must keep their agents continually among us and advertise liberally, thus making their names almost household words among us. There are many really good first class houses in Norfolk that are well patronized by our merchants, and it is due to the fact that they have become known to us, by liberal advertising. We see no reason why Norfolk should not reap the advantages which nature has so profusely lavished upon her and, become at least one of the first cities in the South. Let these Norfolk people awake to a sense of their own interest, seek a little more dilligently for our North Carolina trade advertise a little more liberally in our News-papers, and the road to prosperity will become easier.

We clip the above from one of our North Carolina exchanges. It is every word of it true. There is no reason why Norfolk should not receive the greater part of the whole sale trade of all this section. It is possible for business men of that City to do so. But to accomplish this they must make themselves better known to our people by advertising in the local papers.

As an advertising medium the NORTH CAROLINIAN offers great advantages. Its circulation throughout the counties of Pasquotank, Camden, Currituck, Perquimans, Chowan, Gates, Bertie, Hertford, Washington, Beaufort, Hyde and Tyrell, is extensive, being taken and read by all classes—the merchant the farmer and the laboring man. It has a larger circulation than any paper in the State.

OLD LINE WHIGS.

Having descended from good old Whig stock, and having been an enthusiastic old line Whig ourself, we cannot resist a fraternal feeling for those who were life long Whigs, and especially those who were friends and supporters of HENRY CLAY! We always feel, when we find these co-operating with the Locofocos, that they are not in congenial company, and that their true place is in the Republican party. It was the "negro" that drove them off. They could not all at once endorse those parts of the Reconstruction measures conferring suffrage and political equality on the black man. But since the Democracy are making a "new departure," accepting all the Amendments, and receiving the negro into full fellowship by nominating and voting for him—as was done here a year ago, and as is being done elsewhere—we earnestly ask what is there to induce old Whigs to remain in that party any longer.—nay what is there to prevent them from falling into the ranks in opposing their former political adversaries? They are not—they never can be Democrats. Then why longer aid them?

THE STATE OF MAINE ALL RIGHT.

The election in Maine on the 11th inst. resulted in the re-election of our old friend Hon. SIDNEY PERHAM to the Governorship by a largely increased majority, And this too after the nomination by the Democracy of their most popular man. The Republican majority is over 11,000. The Senate stands 29 Republicans and 2 Democrats, and the House is more than three fourths Republican.

The truth is the Democracy is on the wane. The people are sick of it. Whether against the "new departure" as in Kentucky, or for it, as in California, the people are getting more and more weary of it. Its doom is sealed. And so mote it be.

In stopping a few days ago, at our neighboring town of Jamesville, we could not help but notice the business activity, and the marked improvement in our old anti-bellum "Jeemston." There can scarcely be any place in the State, that has made such rapid progressive strides, since the termination of the war. There are about a dozen stores nearly all new, and well painted, a railroad, and steam mills in great abundance. Jamesville may well feel proud of her rapid progress, but at the same time, it should bestow "honor upon whom honor is due," and attribute this "change that has come o'er the spirit of her dreams," to the enterprise and energy of those intelligent, go-a-head Northern men who located there a few years ago.

We clip the above from the Williamston Spectator. It is an article written in the right spirit. We often hear Jamesville spoken of as a live town and that among its inhabitants are a number of go-a-head people. We propose visiting them ere long in order to make their acquaintance. We have a fellow feeling for men of enterprize and energy, be they located where they may.

The record of the Republican Party and the Republican Administration is one of which we may well feel proud. It is a record of earnest devotion to the principles of equal rights and equal duties of all citizens, with a wise, prudent and economical conduct of national affairs, preserving the national honor abroad and maintaining the national authority at home. Added to this, it presents a record of steady and rapid reduction of the public debt, coincident with a large decrease in taxation.

The answer of Maine to the voice of California is entirely satisfactory. They both endorse the Republican National Administration. The question before the people was national, and the response is an emphatic approval of the policy now governing the country. These two States have but uttered the key-note of Republican victory which will swell in volume as it rolls from one end of the Republic to the other!

The Republicans have a majority in both Houses of the California Legislature. This secures us the United States Senator.

That tidal wave, to the height of fifty feet or more, which Prof. Agassiz says "on the evening of the fifth or on the morning of the sixth of next month would sweep over the whole ocean coast from Cape Hatteras to Bahia, and submerge all parts of the surface along the coast that are not more than forty feet above the ocean level at flood tide," is creating considerable sentation among some credulous Carolinians on the coast, and frightening timid people in that direction who are not "prepared to go." The Carolina Messenger advises its friends in Newbern and Beaufort to build a Noah's ark and be on the "look out" for the predicted tidal wave.—Exchange.

Of course the whole thing is a hoax. But if it would fill up a few malaria breeding swamps we know of and wash away the neglected garbage and filth that tends to produce disease, we say "let her come."

The Republican party will keep possession of, and control the national government for years to come. The Southern people have nothing to gain, but much to lose, by continuing to war against the only party in the nation that has it in its power to render them any assistance in their present distressed condition, and which is as much inclined to assist them as any other at the North.—Hon. L. Hanes in Old North State.

True, every word of it true. And we have been all along trying to impress this truth upon the people—that it was foolish, nay suicidal to place themselves in antagonism with the General Government. They can gain nothing by such a course, but will lose much.

SENATOR POOL.—The Carolina Era, in a recent issue, contains an appreciative article on Senator Pool, of North Carolina, in which that gentleman's services to Republicanism in North Carolina and in the South generally are properly acknowledged and commended.—National Republican.

No man has done more and no one stands higher in the South to-day than Hon. JOHN POOL. Nor is his name and fame confined to this section. He is being referred to by the leading journals of the North and West as the rising man in the South.

We have received from the publishers, A. S. Barnes & Co., New York, "Fourteen weeks in Descriptive astronomy by J. Dorman Steele." We consider it admirably adapted to our system of common schools. It contains at the end questions for the teacher. They have also published many other works in other departments of science on the same plan. We shall take great pleasure in showing the work and hope it will be introduced in our schools. Sent by mail at $1,50.

The great thefts—amounting to hundreds of Millions—that have been proven against Tammany in New York are an earnest of what will be done whenever the Democracy can secure power. It is plunder, not principle, which binds together that party in New York, and as that party controls the National Democracy, the people can imagine what would happen should they get control of the Government.

The Maryland Republicans, in Convention on the 12th, at Baltimore, unanimously nominated Hon. Jacob Tome for Governor. Alexander Randall and Lawrence J. Brendle were placed on the ticket for Attorney General and Controller. Resolutions indorsing the Administration of President Grant and the record of the Republican Party were also adopted.

We think so too after its latest efforts in this State, California, Maine, Wyoming and Colorado.

The Republicans will carry Pennsylvania in October by a sufficient if not a large majority.—New York Sun.

The Sun's head is level on one point at least, even if it is more of a Democratic than a Republican sheet.

Both parties have made their nominations for Governor in New Jersey. The Republicans selection CORNELIUS WALSH and the Democrats JOEL PARKER. Both able men.

Read the article on our first page showing how the Sentinel drain's the public treasury. Nineteen thousand dollars is a snug little sum. And we, the people, pay it.

Where is that Democratic pyramid, with California at the base and Maine at the apex, which use to appear so often in Democratic journals in September? Echo answers, where?

The entire Congressional delegation of California—three members—are Republicans.

Good news—all along the line from California to Maine.

The Federal Court at Raleigh.

The Federal Court convened at Raleigh on the 11th. Judge Bond of the District, and Judge Brooks of the Circuit Court presiding. The Grand Jury were drawn, the oath administered and the following brief but concise charge delivered by Judge Bond.

"Gentlemen of the Grand Jury: I need not do more this morning than to charge you that you have a most important duty to perform at this session of the Court. The District of North Carolina, it is alleged, is the theatre of gross ontrages upon citizens of the United States, which are in direct violation of recent laws enacted by Congress' to enforce the 14th and 15th amendments to the Constitution of the United States. It is the intention of those acts to secure to all the citizens of this and the other States the peaceable enjoyment of their rights as citizens—to make every man feel secure in the exercise of those rights which are granted and secured to him by the Constitution of the United States. These laws oppress nobody. They are intended ueither to disturb or effect any person who is not an enemy to the peace and quiet of the State, and who is not himself lawless. Upon the vigor with which you enforce them depends their usefuluess. A prompt and vigorous enforcement of them will restore peace and harmony to that part of the State where so great insecurity of life and property seems to prevail. At the same time, gentlemen, you must be impartial. You must, by your close scrutiny of the facts in each case, endeavor to put no one on trial whose guilt does not, upon the evidence before you, appear plain. There must be great care exercised, that the heated imagination of men who are in dread of their lives do not unconsciously to the witnesses exagerate the facts they relate, and at the same time you must patiently examine and bear with a witness who, if his narrative be true, is in fear of punishment and even death upon his return, for having appeared before you. I have no thought but that if you thus carefully examine those who are brought before the grand jury, and investigate those cases as honest citizens called to perform a solemn public duty, without fear, favor or partiality, and free from all partizan bias, you will have the testimony of a good consctence and the hearty support of the rightminded men of North Carolina: and for nothing else need you care. The people of the United States look anxiously for the restoration of order here. The interests of commere and trade require it. The measure of a people's happiness is the security with which life and property are enjoyed: all they look to the Courts of the United States, since the passage of these acts, to make that security complete. I hope, gentlemen, we shall endeavor to do so. If you have any difficulty in the construction of the laws applicable to these cases, (and none other will be brought before you,) you can always apply to the Court or the District Attorney."

THE PETIT JURY

was then called and sworn, each juror subscribing an oath similar to that administered to the grand jury.

The Court then adjourned, to meet again at 10 o'clock Thursday.

INJUNCTION CASE.

The second day of Court was occupied by discussion of the injunction case of James B. Stafford, of Maryland, against Edward J. Warren, President of the Senate, and Thomas J. Jarvis, Speaker of the House of Representatives—an injunction restraining said officers fom appointing directors on the North Canlina Railroad. Mr. Samuel F. Philips appeared for the plaintiff, and ex-Juges Fowle and Battle for the defendats. The arguments on the case were exceedingly interesting, but we refrain fom giving a mere synopsis, as nothing but a full report would do the learned gendemen justice.

The opinion of the Court was not delivered.

United States Attorney General Akerman was present.

THIRD DAY.

FRIDAY, Sept. 15th, 1871.

The Court met at 10 o'clock.

The criminal docket contained nineteen cases—bills found at the last term.

At 11½ o'clock, the Grand Jury presented the following

viz: The United States vs. Randolph Shotwell and others.

Shotwell was recently editor of The Asheville Citizen.

District Attorney Starbuck announced the readiness of the prosecution to proceed with this case, when, on motion of Ex-Gov. Bragg, counsel for defendants, the case was postponed till Saturday morning. When this case is taken up, we will give the substance of the charges in the bill and the names of all the parties charged.

Judge Bond announced, that for the purpose of affording the District Attorney ample time to make due preparation for business, the Court would adjourn till Saturday at 10 o'clock, A. M.

It was a signal testimony, not only to his powers of endurance, but to his confirmed habits of strict temperance, that young Weston was able to walk four hundred miles in five consecutive days. The feat which tested so severely his muscular system was easily performed within the prescribed time in the presence of numerous spectators. We do not notice this to commend such exhibitions or displays of extraordinary powers, but to call attention to the testimony of Prof. Doremus, the distinguished scientist who had acted as his medical adviser. He stated that the practical trial of endurance by Mr. Weston was the most severe that had ever been made, and that it was a powerful temperance sermon, for the feat could never have been accomplished if he had been accustomed to use or had depended on stimulants. Athletes of all kinds, now as in ancient times, while training for their feats, are obliged to keep from the use of intoxicating drinks. Is not this a convincing proof that temperance is essential for those who would successfully meet and overcome opposing obstacles in the daily contests of life.

A gentleman was one day asked by a friend how he kept himself from being involved in quarrels. He answered, "By letting the angry person have all the quarrel to himself."

Mount Vesuvius is having a blow out.

The apple crop in Connecticut is a failure.

Prof. Porter will be inaugurated President of Yale on Wednesday, Oct. 11.

Ex-Gov. Holden assumed the editorial control of the Washington Chronicle on the 13th.

Fishing Creek Township, in Warren county, has a hawk dog. It caught two last week, which had been depredating upon chickens in the neighborhood.

A white man 79 years of age applied on Monday to the register of Wilmington for a marriage license. The woman is 23 years old. This will make his fifth wife.

In Greenville, Pitt county, on Friday last a negro by the name of Thomas Kinn, was badly shot in attempting to resist the deputy sheriff, who had a warrant for his arrest.

A negro boy, last week, convicted at Granville Superior court, of having roasted a negro baby alive, whereupon Judge Watts, as a punishment for this atrocious crime, ordered him to be bound out to learn a trade.

Alexander H. Stephens, in one of his last three-column editorial paragraphs, says that "the key-note" which was sounded in Ohio by Vallandigham has lost California to the Democracy, and is losing the other States as fast as possible.

Professo D. H. Mahon, a West Point Educator, and one of the most distinguished military officers of the day, committed suicide on the 16th by jumping from the boat from West Point to New York.

John C. Breckinridge, say the Lexington papers, is now one of the hardest working lawyers in Kentucky, and is likely to make a good deal of money by his profession. He seldom discusses politics in these days, having discovered that they are in no sense remunerative.

The disposition to suicide must be ineradicable in the breast of some persons at least. The Dinwiddie County (Virginia) papers chronicle the self-destruction, by drowning in a well, of Mrs. Mary Michaels in her 111th year. At her time of life she certainly ought to have been able to let well alone.

Gens. Hooker, Halleck and Hancock are now in St. Paul, Minn., the meeting being purely accidental. Gen. Halleck has visited Minnesota with his family in order to place his son at school with Bishop Whipple, who is his cousin. Gen. Hooker is on a visit of pleasure and recreation, and Gen. Hancock is at his post attending to his official duties.

The Attorney-General has decided that the Government has no right to a priority of payment as against private creditors of an insolvent national bank for moneys which the bank holds to the credit of the United States Treasurer, and that the Controller of the Currency has no authority to declare a dividend to the private creditors of a national bank before the claims of the United States are satisfied.

All beauty is not monopolized by the Caucasian race. In Keokuk the other day, at the State Fair, a baby-show was organized, and out of 12 competitors the bouncing ebony image of Mrs. Chloe Franklin, a black woman, was unanimously awarded the prize as the handsomest infant in the group, and a card was pinned on the victorious one, stating that his parents were of the Kentucky stock, owned at one time by Henry Clay.

The direct effect of the use of distilled liquors upon the brain and moral nature is injurous and fearful, but their disastrous effect is largely increased by the vile and poisonous mixtures used in their manufacture to cheapen their cost and intensify their stimulating power. It is well-known that pure liquor can scarcely be obtained, so corrupt has the corrupting business become. As a check to this swindling and deadly business, the legislature of New Jorsey has enacted a law prohibiting the adulteration of distilled or malt liquor by a fine of $1,000, and imprisonment for two years.

Don Cameron and other Pennsylvania capitalists have bought the Blue Ridge railroad, South Carolina, and upon the recommendation of Col. J. P. Low, their chief engineer, have resolved to change the gauge to three feet throughout the entire line. The seaboard terminus of the road will be at the port of Charleston. The engineer's estimates indicate that a business which would pay only 3 per cent. dividends if the road be completed on the broad gauge plan will suffice to pay 7 per cent. on the cost of the narrow gauge.

Some wiseacre has set adrift a paragraph which begins with the profound remark that "the food of hens may or may not affect the color of the yolk of the eggs." And, further, it is said that a light-colored yolk merely denotes a fresh egg, and a dark-colored one a stale egg. All of which may be true, but eggs laid at sea turn out almost colorless yolks. Perhaps this is owing to the influence of sea air, but more likely to the food of the fowls. A lot of Italian fowls lately arrived here, laid eggs all the way from Genoa, each laying being with less color than the previous one.

On the line of the Chicago, Dubuque and Minnesota Railroads, seven miles west of Lansing, Mich., is a curious Indian idol. This relic of the aborigines resembles at a distance a bear sitting upon its haunches, and is cut out of the solid rock. Passing Indians pay it the greatest veneration, offering presents of tobacco, colored beads, pieces of buffalo meat, &c. Near it is another and smaller image. The ground whereon these relics repose is wanted for a new railroad track, and they, like the people who worship there, will soon vanish before the advance of the iron horse.

Severe summer droughts in the Mississippi Valley have rendered that river lower than it has been for years before. Cattle now roam where a few months ago steamboats went to and fro. The majestic river is drying up, and bids fair to become a mere brook. In view of this state of affairs, a Western contemporary suggests that an experiment be tried. If the explosion of large quantities of gunpowder produced atmospheric disturbances, and hence rain, let General Hancock, who cammands in that region, order several batteries of cannon to the upper Mississippi, and have them fired off, in order that the skies may no longer refuse to give forth their accustomed supplies of moisture.

Religious proprieties, as well as social amenities, seem liable to be suddenly forgotten in the South. At Mobile, a Sunday or two ago, a relentless landlord, taking up the collection in church, passed the plate to a delinquent tenant and, as the latter put in his mite, in an undertone demanded a rent bill a little overdue. The debtor instantly and pleasantly made answer: "You must be d——d fool to think I'm going to pay rent in church." Thereupon an unseemly debate aroused the congregation, the landlord concluding with flinging the plate, money and all, at the head of the tenant, who straightway, in return, threw the contents of a capacious snuff-box in the face of his persecutor.

THIS WEEK'S ADVERTISEMENTS.

We call attention to the following new advertisement in this iss.

Assignees Notice
Administrators Notices
Administrators Sale.
Warrant in Bankruptcy.
Friend School at Belvidere.
Houses to rent at Nixonton.
A new Jail for Dare County.
Dr D T Krebs &c. advertise.

Local and Personal.

☞ Our Merchants are preparing for an active Fall and Winter trade.

☞ A number of new and important advertisements this week. Read them.

☞ We call special attention to the article on our first page on Land and Building Associations.

☞ "B. J." of Genoa, Nebraska, is informed that his remittance was duly received. The same to our friend "E. N." of Baltimore.

☞ We hear of several more new buildings about to be erected in the City. By all means let them be of brick, as they are so much safer on account of fire.

☞ By advertisement in this issue it will be seen that it is proposed to build a Jail for Dare County. They need one. They have been using the Jail at this place.

☞ Two prisoners—THOMAS SMITH ALEXANDER WHITEHURST—have broken out of jail in Currituck. They were committed on charge of robbing the Store of TULLY CAPPS, at Knott's Island.

☞ We call attention to the announcement of the opening of the Autumn term of the Friends School at Belvidere. This institution has a reputation second to none in the State.

☞ On Friday night some bold thief broke a large pane of glass in one of Fowler's Store windows and abstracted a pair of boots. Why ain't the street lamps lighted as ordered by the City Commissioners?

☞ Sheriff WOOD's new brick building is the largest and best in the City. It makes a commanding appearance and shows a commendable spirit of public enterprize on his part. Let others follow his worthy example.

☞ JOHN C. NASH, at one time one of the most active and prominent citizens of Camden county, died at his residence at Sawyers Creek on Friday. In the days when the grand old Whig party was a power in the land he was one of its earnest supporters. His age was 71 years, 7 months and 7 days. Peace to his memory.

☞ A young man named WILSON TOWNER, of South Mills committed suicide on Friday evening last. He had been missed some time but was not found 'til Sunday evening, when he was discovered hanging in a stable. He had just recovered from a severe attack of sickness and was observed to be in low spirits. He was about 23 years of age. He bore a very good character.

☞ "Young Reader" desires us to inform him who is referred to by the term "The Laughing Philosopher." The appellation was given to DEMOCRITUS of Abdera, who was a cotemporary with SOCRATES. He is said to have always made a jest of man's follies and sorrows as well as his feeble struggles and evanescent works. He is usually contrasted with "The Weeping Philosopher," an epithet given to HERACLITUS, a native of Ephesus, who flourished about 500 before Christ. He was of a gloomy and melancholy disposition, and is said to have been constantly shedding tears on account of the vices of mankind.

☞ All business men should have their names printed on their envelopes, so that in the event of mistakes at the Post office, they could be returned to them. As an instance, the Post Master at Boston states that out of an average receipt of sixty thousand letters to be mailed at that office each day, at least one hundred are found to be either without stamps or insufficiently paid, all of which he is obliged by law to forward to the Dead-letter Office. Had the names of the writers been printed on the envelopes they could have been at once returned for correction, and thus forwarded, properly stamped. It not unfrequently happens that unstamped letters are dropped at our Post Office and because the writer's name is not printed on the envelope, the letters are forwarded to Washington.

☞ We have returned from our "Home by the Sea-side"—paid old Ocean the last visit for this season. To us the sight was as majestic, as grand, as sublime as when our eyes first beheld it and our ears first heard the roar of the mighty waves lashing themselves against the beach. We have time and again attempted to describe this wonderous work of Nature, but we have ever failed. The truth is the Sea is not to be written about, whether in prose or verse; it is to be gazed at, heard, felt. One's experience there is unique, unlike in kind as well as in degree to anything that one experiences at ordinary or extraordinary bodies of water. The cause of this is the enormous mass continually ebbing and flowing, ebbing and flowing, on and on forever. It has been so from the beginning: it will be so to the end. Not one moment by day or by night, in summer or in winter, in dry weather or in any weather, has there been an intermission! Ah what material thing can give one such an impression of Infinity! And too the sense of Eternity is forced on the mind, because, within the limits of the earth's duration in its present form, one cannot conceive a time when this great Ocean began its ceaseless movement, or a time when it is to end. Aye, more, one gets an impression of ceaseless active force no where so strikingly obtained. And on what a gigantic scale! All is gushing life, a force never spent, never showing the faintest trace of feebleness or exhaustion, like the arm of Him who "fainteth not, neither is weary."

☞ MR. TURNER, of the firm of Dr. KREBS & Co., has returned from the North with a large supply of Drugs, Medicines, Stationery &c. See advertisement.

☞ An intelligent gentleman who has recently traveled through the Tadmore section of this county informs us that they have the best crop of corn ever raised there. Some farmers will house this season from six to eight thousand bushels.

☞ Oh dear! The Sentinel threatens not to abuse us any more. That is terrible! Some men are afraid of the dirty pen of JOSIAH TURNER, but as for us—well, we submit to the punishment of not being bespattered by it in the future. Good bye JOSIAH!

☞ Some of our property owners—those who wanted to sell, but who when purchasers began to arrive here so suddenly raised their price—would do well to read the story of "Jasper Gripper" on our first page. They have over reached themselves.

☞ Some of our exchanges are commenting on the prediction of Prof AGASSIZ that a great tidal wave would, this autumn, sweep along certain portions of the sea coast of the United States, and some of the people are beginning to feel no little alarm. We rather incline to the belief that the distinguished Naturalist has been misunderstood—that he intended to say that the wave would not be an aqueous one, but a political deluge, and that its first ripple of any moment would be felt on the shores of California, and that it would then almost instantly pass on to the other extreme portions of the country and lave the shores of Maine. At all events, if he did not predict such a wave, it has come to pass, and will ere long sweep away many composts of Democratic corruption that have grown rank upon the shores of the Republic.

—The New Orleans papers publish a very sober correspondence between several citizens and Prof. C. E. FORSHEY, in which the latter pronounces the story that Prof AGASSIZ has predicted a tidal wave which will involve the Southern coast in ruin, a most monstrous hoax.

Gen. Grant has written a letter from Lebanon, Penn., declining an invitation to be present at the unvailing of the Lincoln statue in Fairmount Park, Philadelpoin, on the 22d. He says: "There are no patriots, dead or alive, who will be remembered more gratefully for their loyalty and services to their country than the man whose memory will be commemorated at Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, on the 22d of this September, nor none whom I more honor as a good as well as a great man. But I am now on my way, with my family, to visit relations and friends among whom I was raised, and whom I left 32 years ago, and who have been advised of the time of my coming. I do not see how I can make a change now; but permit me to express, through you, the regret I feel for it."

The remedy for the evils which Mormonism has so long inflicted on Utah is not so much national legislation as moral agitation in the territory itself. It is the duty of the national gavernment (a duty long neglected) to guard the ballot-box from terrorism and fraud, and the platform and the pulpit from violence. This it is at last doing. The consequence is a series of religious meetings in Salt Lake City itielf, in which Mormonism is openly and strongly assailed, and the organization of a liberal party which is rapidly increasing in numbers and influence. Its pnblished address is a vigorous indictment of Mormonism as a species of religious despotism, by the side of which that of the papacy, so far as this country is concerned, sinks into insignificance. A little patience. It will not be long before the people of Utah will themselves make polygamy a criminal offence.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

EXUBERENANT HEALTH is a blessing vouchsafed to few. Even those who have been favored by nature with strong constitutions and vigorous frames are apt to neglect the precautions necessary to preserve these priceless endowments. Indeed, as a rule, the more healthy and robust a man is, the more liberties he is inclined to take with his own physique. It is some consolation to the naturally weak and feeble to know that they can be so invigorated and built up by a proper use of the means which science has placed at their disposal as to have a much better chance of long life, and exemption from disease and pain, than the most athletic of their fellows who are foolish enough to suppose themselves invulnerable, and act accordingly.

It is not too much to say that more than half the people of the civilized world need an occasional tonic, to enable them to support the strain upon their bodies and minds, which the fast life of this restless age necessitates. In fact, a pure, wholesome, unexciting tonic is the great desideratum of the busy millions, and they have found it in HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. It is a stamina medicine, i. e. it imparts permanent strength to weak systems and invigorates delicate constitutions. Its reputation and its sales have steadily increased. Competitive preparations have been introduced ad libitum, and, as far as the public is concerned ad nauseam, in the hope of rivalling it, but they have either perished in the attempt or been left far in the rear. It has been the great stand-by, during one of the severest centuries, and it is quite certain that no proprietary medicine in this country is as widely known, or as generally used.

Ten lightning presses, running incessantly (Sundays excepted,) the whole year through, barely supply the demand for the Illustrated Almanac, in which the nature and uses of the preparation are set forth. the circulation now being over eight millions a year.

AGRICULTURAL, HORTICULTURAL AND DOMESTIC MATTERS.

Farming.

We have spoken of the importance and dignity of farming as a pursuit, and yet, in the face of the great advancement that has been made in late years, there are too many farmers who regard themselves as, literally, "toilers," without aspirations for higher attainments and without promise of improvement in the future. We repeat what we have often said, that farming is not a simple profession, but of all professions, in its practice, it ambraces the very widest range of scientific truths and actual facts, and it cannot be disputed that in this pursuit we have afforded the widest field for the exercise of the analytic mind. But how few of those who own vast acres will ever pause to inquire into the influences they start to work, or ask concerning the causes which lead to such important results.

As at present conducted, there is a large amount of very difficult labor required to be performed in farming. There is no excellence attainable without effort, and the farmer who can command the respect of his fellow men and the confidence of the entire community, by the success he achieves has a just cause for pride. Science and human skill are required to effect the results we all desire to see, and when our farmers, generally, with a higher appreciation of their capacities, and a truer estimate of the results they bring about, will earnestly labor to make their pursuit attractive and profitable, there will be less cause for complaint.

The remark oft quoted is, that farming is the most independent of all the callings of life. This may be true sometimes but it is not true in every case. To become really successful in farming, the latest development, of science, bearing on agriculture, must be properly estimated. Care, attention, earnestness, and industry, are the qualities demanded, and we speak of this now only to impress on the minds of many that success is attainable only by constant desire to improve, but, unfortunately, too many farmers think that they may attain a certain degree of success that there is no longer an incentive or inducement to increase exertions.—Farmer's Journal.

Protecting Fruit from Birds.

A correspondent of the London Field gives the following method as having proved in his experience entirely efficacious:

"And what you will ask, is my talisman? Simply a ball of gray or whitybrown linen thread. I take a ball of this in my hand, fasten the end of it to one of the twigs of the goose-berry or currant bush, and then cross the thread backwards and forwards from twig to twig in perhaps a dozen different directions, fasten, and the thing is done; and it will last two years—the thread on the trees I mean. It is not necessary that the thread should be white or coarse; it aught rather to be fine and dark—a thing to be felt, not seen. I have watched the birds after performing the operation; they come boldly to settle on the trees; and they strike against these, to them, invisible snares, for such no doubt they deem them to be; they fly off in a terrible hurry, and settle on the walls or trees round about, longing and getting hungry, till at last they disappear, and you will see them no more.

"As regards peas and other seeds which I always sow in drills, I simply streach it, sometimes two inches from the ground, supporting it at that height by little forked sticks. If you put it much higher than this the birds do not seem to care for it—it does not touch them; that is the grand secret—something which touches them, something they do not well see, nor know what it means.

"I have seen people put thick white strings with feathers tied to it, and two feet from the ground. The birds soon understand these, and care little for them; in short, I know to my cost it sometimes acts as a lure, a notice to the birds that there is someteing to be had worth looking after. I will answer for it, any one adopting the plan I recommend will never have cause to complain of the birds, however numerous they may be."

MAKE THE MOST OF COWS.—Five per cent. and perhaps ten, could be added to the milk product of the country, if these rules were observed:

1. Never hurry cows in driving them to and from the pasture.
2. Milk nearly at equal intervals; at half past five in the morning and six at night, are good hours.
3. Be especially tender of the cow at milking time.
4. When seated, draw the milk as ripidly as possible, being certain to always get it all.
5. Never talk or think of anything besides what you are doing when milking.
6. Offer some caress, and always a soothing word, when you approach a cow and when you leave her.

A gentleman once visited the State Library of New-Hampshire, wishing to consult Jefferson's Notes on Virginia. The Librarian, who was elected to his office because he was a Democrat, fumbled about the shelves for a while, and then said to the applicant, "I cannot find them, and I presume Mr. Jefferson took them up before he died."

ANOTHER METHOD OF REMOVING MILDEW.—Pour one quart of boiling water on two ounces of chloride of lime, and strain through a cloth; then add three quarts of cold water. Let the articles stand in this twelve hours, then rinse thoroughly. It will not injure the cloth.

TO CLEAN VELVET—Wet a cloth and put it over a hot flat iron, and a dry one over that, then draw the velvet across it, brushing it at the same time with a soft brush, and it will look as nice as new.

TO WHITEN PIANO KEYS.—The ivory keys to a piano which have become yellow may be made white by washing them with a sponge with diluted sulphurous acid, or a solution of hyposulphate of soda and expose to the sun.

ROSE OIL.—Put any quantity of dried rose leaves into an earthenware pipkin, cover them with olive oil, and keep hot for some hours. The oil wil extract both odor and color.

Both saints and sinners are continued in this world till they are fully ripe the one for endless bliss, and the other for endles woe.

Accepting the amendments is what killed the Democracy of California, unless the Savannah (Ga.) Republican is grievouslay mistaken—as it probably it.

Hon. Alex. H. H. Stuart says that iron ore has been found in Augusta County, Virginia, in sufficient quantity to supply the wants of the State for many years.

The Bunker Hill in Charlestown, Mass., which it is proposed to level is not the one on which Bunker Hill Monument stands. That is one of the everlasting hills.

DESCRIPTIVE CATALOGUE
OF VALUABLE
NORTH CAROLINA LANDS, FOR SALE BY
GEORGE D. POOL.
Real Estate Agent,
ELIZABETH CITY, N. C.

In presenting my list of lands and other properties for sale, I would say that no section of the United States offers such inducements for capitalists and emigrants, as this section of North Carolina. In longevity and healthfulness, it will compare favorably with any where; and in easy and cheap transportation of products to market, in pleasantness of climate, in the sociability of the people, in great fertility, and durability of soil, no section can equal it.

A railroad will soon be built to Weldon, putting this place in direct communication by Rail, with the whole United States. This, together with our great fishing, farming and manufacturing interests, and certain early completion of already projected works of improvement for putting in nearer, cheaper and easier communication with the Ocean, will render this one of the most important commercial, and manufacturing points on the Southern country.

A Steam Saw and Grist Mill in the town of Nixonton 8 miles from E. City. This Mill has a fine wharf and store attached on deep navigable water, the engine is 40 horse power, and all in good order. It is one of the finest locations to be found any where for custom work, and for getting good saw logs easily and cheaply. Price $4,000 cash.

Adjoining the mill property is 40 acres of fine land on the River, with three houses, all for $1200. Near the same is a good two story dwelling and 13 acres of land for $2.000, and a good one story dwelling, with one acre of land for $300.

Also two fine farms in Pasquotauk county, 10 miles from E. City, within half mile of church, school house and post office. One tract contains about 400 acres, with fair buildings and mostly cleared, and the other contains 300 acres, with good two story dwelling, large barn, and other outhouses, both are offered at $20 per acre, one third cash, balance in one and two years.

Also one other tract in Pasquotank county, containing 116 acres, within one mile of the town with fine buildings, mostly cleared and in cultivation. Price $25 per acre, one half cash, balance in 12 months.

A valuable site for a hotel at Nag's Head, 40 miles from Elizabeth City, and 50 miles from Edenton. This is situated immediately on the Ocean, and is a famous Summer resort for invalids, and those seeking health, comfort, and amusements during the summer months. It is in direct communication by steamboats and railroad with all parts of North Carolina, Virginia, and the North; and is equal in natural advantages to Newport, or Cape May. Visitors flock to this famous summer resort by hundreds and thousands, and a large amount of money can be made by a hotel. A charter has been obtained from the Legislature of N. C., for a joint stock company to build the hotel. There is now an old hotel on the spot, which could be cheaply repaired and bought for $3.000. This hotel, though imperfectly kept, cleared the proprietor last season, over $3.000. For a man or a company, having some capital, this is one of the finest chances to make money at hotel keeping to be found anywhere. The early attention of the public is invited to this property.

A fine steam saw and grist mill at Hertford, the county seat of Perquimans County, N. C., 18 miles from Elizabeth City. This mill has a fifty horse power engine, now in good running, two pairs of best French burr stones, and two upright saws. The house has a brick basement, and the building is large and in good order. There is one and a half acres of land belonging to this property, and a good two story dwelling, and other out-houses. The section of country adjacent abounds in the finest yellow pine, cypress, ash, poplar, and other valuable timber. This property originally cost $15.000, and is now offered at forced sale for the low price of $8.500, $7.00, cash, and the balance in six equal instalments, six months apart each with interest.

A fine farm and fishery in same county. The farm contains 400 acres of the finest land, lies immediately on Albemarle Sound where the water is 12 miles wide, and 18 to 20 feet deep, has got buildings, and fine neighborhood. The fishery is on the farm and goes with it. It has a new seine 2,500 yards long, and all the necessary boats, buildings, &c., (which cost over $15,000 two years ago.) The fishery alone, of a good season, will make from 5 to $10,000 profit to the owner. This property is offered at forced sale for the low price of $20,000, $7,000 cash, balance on easy times.

A store at South Mills, in Camden county, 20 miles from E. City, and 20 miles from Norfolk, lying on the canal where steamers pass daily. A fine chance for merchandize. A valuable tract of land in Camden county, at South Mills, on the Dismal Swamp Canal, lying on the canal for two miles, containing over 900 acres of land—two-thirds cleared, and in a fine state of cultivation, with good buildings, &c.; balance in valuable timber. Price $12,000, one-third cash, balance in one and two years, interest from January, 1871. This is a valuable farm for corn, wheat, and vegetables, and being midway between Elizabeth City and Norfolk, and located where steamers pass by the door daily, is a desirable and cheap property.

A fine farm of 600 acres within six miles of E. City, one mile from navigable water, and the best cotton farm in the State. It is also well adapted to raising corn and wheat. This farm has a splended two-story dwelling upon it, large barn, 40 by 60 feet, a large number of outhouses, by splended trees and shrubbery, is in a strong Union neighborhood, and altogether the most desirable place in the county. A little over one-half of this land is cleared, and the balance is covered with the finest yellow pine, popler, ash and other timber. Price $30 per acre—one-third cash, balance in one and two years with interest. Title reserved.

Sixteen houses and lots in Elizabeth City, with good dwellings, out-houses, &c. Prices and terms reasonable.

A valuable farm in Perquimans county, N. C. near navigable water. Has a fine dwelling-house with ten rooms, in splended order, with splended barns and stables—all in first rate order. The farm is very productive in corn, oats, wheat, cotton and clover. It is one of the finest farms in the State and is now in good cultivation, contains 585 acres of land, about three-fourths cleared and under cultivation. Price $10,000, one-third cash January 1, next balance in two equal annual instalments with interest at the rate of six per cent.

A farm of 370 acres 8 miles from town by water, and 12 miles by land, is offered for sale for $10,000 in easy payments. This tract of land lies immediately on the River which is 4 miles wide and washes the farm its whole length on one side, and a branch of the River one mile wide, binds it on one end. The land is well adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, peas, &c., lies high and dry, and is susceptible of the highest improvement. Fronting and looking over, as it does, two large sheets of navigable water, where steamers and sailing vessels are constantly passing, carrying freight and passengers to all parts of the country, its location and surroundings, are of the most fascinating and desirable character. There is a fishery on it ready for working a seine 2,500 yards long, and which commands a portion of both streams of water, and can be made immensely profitable. The price charged is low, and the purchase a very desirable one. The buildings consist of a good two-story dwelling and out-houses.

A tract of valuable land, containing 356 acres, with fine two story dwelling containing 9 rooms and cook-room. Servant's house with 3 rooms, large barns and stables, all necessary and convenient out-houses, 3 tenant-houses near town, and immediately on the River. About 100 acres of this land is in fine wood and timber, balance in a fine state of cultivation. It has 8,000 grape vines one year old, 3,500 peach, apple and dwarf pear trees, five acres in strawberries which yielded an immence profit this year, ten acres in Lawton and other rare varieties of black-berries, 15 to 20,000 young peach trees with other choice fruits too numerous to mention. This farm has a public road on one side, and the River on the other, where strangers come daily to the landings to receive the fruits and vegetables, and carry them down to Norfolk, Baltimore, Phila., or New York. The land is finely adapted to raising corn, wheat, cotton, oats, and all other field crops.

The owner of this farm offers to sell in tracts, to suit purchasers, say in 50 to 100 acre tracts, and at prices ranging from 35 to $80 per acre, according to location, buildings, &c.

There is also on this farm a fine fishery, where a seine 1,000 yards long, and 20 feet deep is hauled every Spring. Herring, Shad, Rockfish, Sturgeon and other valuable fish, are caught by thousands at every draw of the seine. And the profits are frequently large. This fishery of itself is worth nearly as much as is charged for the whole property. The terms will be liberal. This is probably the finest opportunity offered any where for a profitable investment.

☞ Fishery has an office, and two houses for hands besides fish house. Then some 500 to 1,000 loads of best fish manure on hand, besides over 5,000 loads of compost made ready for use. This goes with the farm.

A desirable house and lot in the town of Elizabeth City on the corner of two principal streets, the principal one, and situated in the best business locality in the town. The lot contains about two acres of land, and the buildings consist of a fair dwelling three stories high, containing eight rooms, all in good order, another two story building with four rooms and pantries, dairy, smokehouses, stables, &c. The dwelling has a good cellar under it. There is room on the front lot to erect two good stores, and they would occupy the best stand in the town for merchandize.

TO THE PUBLIC.
THE LAND AND LUMBER COMPANY having a large amount of Real Estate of their own to dispose of, and their business having increased to such an extent, they think it prudent to decline acting further as Commission Agents for the sale of lands belonging to others. They will however be glad at all times to furnish every facility to parties coming to Elizabeth City with a desire to look at the country and make purchases if they find it to their interst to do so.
The following list of property, owned by the Company, is offered for sale on the most reasonable terms. Their object now is to acquire a larger monied capital for the purpose of further developing their unimproved lands and carrying out their original design of increasing the Commerce and General Trade of Elizabeth City.
As there are others in the Commission Business, parties are referred to their advertisement for further information.

ELIZABETH CITY.
The following desirable list of Properties in Elizabeth City are offered at very reduced prices for cash or on time payments at rates which make any of them excellent investments for capitalists. We feel confident that this City is destined to become a large place and property will advance rapidly. Emigration is now tending Southernward and the feeling is in universal favor toward Elizabeth City.
A large two-story dwelling known as the Parsonage, with fine double Piazza, front and back, large out kitchen, stables, carriage house with 17 acres of ground well enclosed. This ground is all within the corporation of the City, and is well situated to lay out in building lots and make out of it ten fold the price asked for it.
A two-story dwelling containing ten rooms, 10,000 gallon cistern and all necessary out-houses, with large lot. Situated on Main Street. A Vacant Lot no better located and not so large as this was sold recently for $1600 cash.
A large brick store house and wharf situate on Water street; in E. City, comprising three lots with 400 feet of water front. permanently wharfed for the accommodation of large vessels. There is erected on these lots a large two-story brick building, 50 by 80 feet, well fitted up for a wholesale or retail trade at present occupied by the "Yankee Store."

A House and Lot on Riverside Avenue. House 20ft front by 50 ft deep. Containing eight rooms with Pantry and Cellar, all well finished, modern style, and having all necessary out buildings. The Wharf Lots are 200ft deep and will be sold to any size desired along the River. Among them are some most eligible situations for Store Houses, Mills and Manufactories of any kind as there is a fine harbor immediately in front of them, having 30ft of water, sufficient for vessels of my capacity. Along Pennsylvania Avenue are offered some of the finest and choicest lots for dwellings in town at prices varying according to location. This will be the finest street in town, is 80 feet wide, size of Lot 100ft front by 200ft deep. There are now a number of first dass residences being erected on this street. Immediately in the vicinity of these Lots the Company have erected a large Planing Mill, Sash, Blind and Door Factory at a cost of near $20.000 and also their Saw Mill at a cost of near $15,000. That now is the proper time to invest in those Lots there can be no doubt, as they will double in value in a very short time. Lots not near so good as these, are now selling in other parts of the City at more than double the price asked for these.

They also offer a tract of three thousand acres in lots to suit purchasers, near the Pasquotank River, ten miles from Elizabeth City and three miles from South Mills. This land is heavily set with wood and also has upon it a vast amount of saw timber, and has a most excellent soil. This is a fine location for a small Colony. There is now a Public Road running directly through it. This tract is offered at the low price of eight dollars per acre if sold to one party, or at only a fraction more if divided into small lots.
The Company will also sell their farm of 250 acres two miles from Elizabeth City. 125 acres cleared and under good cultivation, well fenced, having upon it two dwelling houses, one new and the necessary out buildings wanted on a farm, and will be sold on very reasonable terms.

This property is very desirable being so near the City though for reasons first given will be sold at a very low price.
We have a finely timbered tract of land situated on the Albemarle Sound twenty miles from Elizabeth City, containing 124 acres. Good timber land bordering on the water is valuable both for wood as well as saw timber as water trausportation affords a good margin for wood, say one dollar per cord. This will also make good farm land—will be sold for one thousand dollars.
Also one other tract of land containing 154 acres situated immediately on the Pasquotank River ten miles from Elizabeth City, valuable for wood, and is excellent farming lands, would be sold for six dollars per acre.

GATES COUNTY.

EVERY DAY AN INCREASE IN FLESH AND WEIGHT IS SEEN AND FELT.
THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.
Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphili, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Theum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges. Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.
If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastess, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in maintaining the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.
Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excels all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for KIDNEY & BLADDER COMPLAINTS, Urinary, and Womb diseases, Gravel, diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone-dust, deposits, and when there is a prickings burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects. They are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and a LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.
They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and all the Visceral Organs.
FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.
For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.
DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the Regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.
They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequaled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.
FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the System in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.
Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says an distinguished physiologist, there is scarcely an individual upon the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of Medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.
Sold by all Druggists and Dealers.
